Foster Care for Haitian Children

A number of you expressed an interest in providing foster care for Haitian children. You must make contact with the Department of Human Services directly to receive the necessary application forms. Contact the Department of Human Services at 404-657-3448 or askdfcsadmin@dhr.state.ga.us.

Save the Date for ReCharge

CBF/GA's fall youth event, ReCharge, will be held on Friday-Sunday, October 1-3. The retreat will be at Woodland Christian Camp and Retreat Center, 90 Woodland Christian Camp Road, Temple, GA 30179. Keep watching www.rechargecbf.org for more details.

CBF Foundation Board Retains Baker and Associates for Presidential Search

With the imminent departure of current CBF Foundation President Don Durham in June, the Foundation's board has retained nationally-recognized executive search firm Baker and Associates to begin the process of identifying the Foundation's third president. The CBF Foundation exists to raise and manage endowment funds for CBF strategic initiatives and CBF partner organizations and churches. The Foundation is an autonomous organization, closely linked to the Fellowship, but governed by a separate board of trustees. Click here for more information on the search.

From Our Churches

From Wieuca Road Baptist Church

The No Man Left Behind Conference is the culmination of twenty years of research and experience working with churches that are discipling men to be authentic followers of Christ and builders of godly families and communities. Wieuca Road Baptist Church will be hosting this conference on Thursday-Saturday, April 29-May 1. Click here for a flyer.

Essentials Conference Information

Being a leader in church can be difficult sometimes. That's why the new Essentials Conference at CBF's General Assembly offers practical sessions that are sure to help you in your church leadership role, whether you're a deacon, teacher, committee member, staff, or other leader. Choose a ministry area that interests you, and gain practical tips from four seventy-five-minute learning sessions related to the topic. The registration fee is $25 after March 1. Visit here for more information.

You've Got the Time

Join the churches of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship in listening to the Bible in 2010. In partnership with the audio Bible ministry, Faith Comes by Hearing, the Fellowship is providing free New Testament MP3 discs. The Fellowship is asking participants to designate twenty minutes a day for forty days to hearing and reflecting on Scripture. Click here for more information.

BWIM/GA Spring Meeting

Baptist Women in Ministry of Georgia will have its annual meeting on Saturday, May 1, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at FBC Riverdale.

Georgia Mountain Food Bank Opportunity

The Georgia Mountain Food Bank is proud to be actively serving the people of Northeast Georgia. The Food Bank provides a vital link between sources of food supplies and hardworking community-based partner agencies, including faith-based ministries, that help get food into the hands of families and individuals who need it.

Currently the Georgia Mountain Food Bank is seeking to create awareness of its services among the churches of Northeast Georgia. If you would like to have a Food Bank representative make a presentation to one or more of your church groups (senior adults, youth, missions, evening services, etc.), contact Damon C. Nix at 770-335-6779 or Damon.C.Nix@student.mercer.edu.

A Capsule History of Baptists Now Available

The Baptist History and Heritage Society is extremely pleased to announce the release of Bruce Gourley's new book, A Capsule History of Baptists. Churches can use this book as an excellent resource for special study groups. College and seminary classes can use this publication to stimulate valuable discussions regarding Baptist history and values. Click here to read more.

In Sympathy

CBF/GA extends sympathy to the family of Smythe Newsome who passed away on Thursday, March 25. An obituary can be found here.
