Attention College Ministers

Houston Sessions

College students won't want to miss the Fellowship's upcoming events designed just for them. The Houston Sessions, to be held alongside CBF's annual General Assembly in Houston, is June 29-July 4. It's only $150 ($50 for North Carolina students) for nearly a week of missional programming, featuring an exploration of poverty, the opportunity to attend the Assembly, a concert with Dove Award-winning singer/songwriter Kyle Matthews, and more. Antiphony

This winter CBF brings back the popular Antiphony collegiate conference. Set for December 29, 2009, through January 2, 2010, at FBC Decatur, the event focuses on Faith. Hope. Love. Now. An all-inclusive $249 pays for everything - all meals, hotel, programming, t-shirt, and an unforgettable New Year's Eve gala. Learn more

From Our Churches

From FBC Rome:

As part of the 175th anniversary of the founding of FBC Rome, the church is publishing historical reminiscences. Many of these will come from the history of the church written by Robert Gardner, Research Librarian at Mercer University, Macon, and former Shorter College professor. Below is the May 8 statement.

First Baptist Church, the oldest downtown Rome church founded here, will celebrate its 175th anniversary on May 16, 2010. (First Presbyterian was founded in 1833 in Livingston and moved to Rome in 1840.) Founding dates of other downtown churches are: First United Methodist, 1840; and St. Peter's Episcopal, 1844.
