Attention College Ministers

Houston Sessions

College students won't want to miss the Fellowship's upcoming events designed just for them. The Houston Sessions, to be held alongside CBF's annual General Assembly in Houston, is June 29-July 4. It's only $150 ($50 for North Carolina students) for nearly a week of missional programming, featuring an exploration of poverty, the opportunity to attend the Assembly, a concert with Dove Award-winning singer/songwriter Kyle Matthews, and more. Register online today!

Antiphony

This winter CBF brings back the popular Antiphony collegiate conference. Set for December 29, 2009, through January 2, 2010, at FBC Decatur, the event focuses on Faith. Hope. Love. Now. An all-inclusive $249 pays for all meals, hotel, programming, t-shirt, and an unforgettable New Year's Eve gala. Learn more

Executive Director of the Baptist History and Heritage Society Announces Retirement Plans

Charles W. Deweese will retire on October 31, 2009, after ten years as executive director of the Baptist History and Heritage Society. Deweese has overseen an organizational name change in 2001, an office move to the Atlanta campus of Mercer University, and the celebration of four hundred years of Baptists. The Society has nearly seven hundred members in the United States and over thirty members in sixteen countries.

Reference and Referral

Milledge Avenue Baptist Church (MABC) is seeking a part-time Director of Children's Programs with the primary responsibility for guiding and maintaining vital educational and spiritual ministries for our children. The person will work with and be supported by the existing children and pre-school committees and the pastoral staff.

How to Use Re-Visions

To go directly to the article you'd like to read, click on

The Director of Children's Programs will work approximately twelve hours per week during the school year and approximately thirty hours per week during the summer. Although a college degree is preferred, we are primarily seeking a candidate with previous experience working with children and a strong Christian background. Interested candidates should send their resume with a cover letter via email to mabcposition@gmail.com. The application deadline is noon on Friday, June 12.

CBF/GA Reference and Referral has several resumes of students entering McAfee School of Theology this fall and looking for part-time positions in area churches. If you have an opening for a seminary student, please contact us at amitchell@cbfga.org.
