We are excited about all of the churches that have registered for March Mission Madness this year, and we are making the final plans to ensure a meaningful weekend for you and your youth. Registration is closed online, but if your church has not registered and would like to attend, there may be space available over the next few weeks at the late registration rate ($100 per participant). Please note that space is no longer available in Fitzgerald.

This year's dates and locations are:

March 11-13, Fitzgerald (location closed)

March 18-20, Macon

March 25-27, Marietta

From Our Churches

Summer Mission Opportunity

Community Baptist Church, Milledgeville, is requesting available mission construction teams to come this summer and help the church work on its new sanctuary and fellowship hall. The foundation is already laid with plumbing and electrical "stubbed in." The missions team of FBC Columbus will be working with Community the first week in May to get the project "dried in" if possible. Other tasks will be converting present larger areas into Sunday School rooms. Interested churches should contact Alan Mitchell, pastor, at 478-957-2295.

Faith Issues and Infertility Series

A five week series on faith issues and infertility will be held on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. at the Counseling Center at FBC Roswell. The dates are February 23, March 2, 6, 23, and 30. The facilitator is Doyle Hamilton, a certified pastoral counselor and license marriage and family therapist. For more information, contact Hamilton at 770-915-2537 or doyle@rfbc.org.

Lenten Resource

Following Jesus through Mark by Joe Baskin is designed to help readers relive the events of Jesus' life as set forth in the earliest biblical account in order to "see Him more clearly, love Him more dearly, and follow Him more nearly." Joe Baskin attended Howard College, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Princeton Theological Seminary. He taught religion at Shorter College, Rome, and served as a lecturer at Malaysian Baptist Theological Seminary, Penang, Malaysia.

Inaugural Convocation

The inaugural convocation for the Center for Teaching Churches is set for Tuesday, April 12, in Day Hall of the McAfee School of Theology on Mercer University's Atlanta campus. The guest speaker is Fred Craddock, and the event will start 10:45 a.m. with lunch afterward. Contact Ron Grizzle at grizzle_rh@mercer.edu or 678-547-6479 for lunch reservations. There is no charge for the convocation or lunch. For more information, click here.

FaithFest

The twenty-fourth annual Forsythia Festival is accepting applications for Faithfest, a faith-based music competition celebrating faith, music, and community. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis and can be made online at www.forsythiafestival.com/faithfest.html.

Building the Beloved Community Symposium

The seventh annual Building the Beloved Community Symposium will be held at Mercer University in Macon on Tuesday-Wednesday, February 22-23. Leroy Barber, president of Mission Year, will be speaking on community and poverty. Click here for more information.

Reference and Referral

Church Seeking Associate Minister

FBC Indianapolis, IN, an American Baptist congregation, is seeking an associate minister. The five-hundred member, diverse congregation has an active worshipping attendance of approximately 260 people. The church is located on the north side of Indianapolis in a mature and changed neighborhood with a wide spectrum of residents, from affluent, long-time dwellers to newly-arrived refugees. For more information, click here.

Church Seeking Minister for Children

FBC Forsyth, an authentic community of faith and care with 430 members, is seeking a part-time/bi-vocational minister for children. The congregation recognizes the value that each child brings to its life and believes that all children deserve a nurturing community of faith to support their faith. FBC Forsyth is a loving church with a vibrant, strong youth program and a wonderful music ministry for adults, youth, and children. The minister for children will have responsibilities for leading, planning, and participating in activities and worship for our children. Some college or seminary experience is preferred. A complete job description can be found at www.fbcforsyth.com. Please send a letter of interest with a resume by mail to Children's Committee, FBC Forsyth, 95 West Morse Street, Forsyth, GA 31029, by fax to 478-994-6347, or by email to forsythfbc@gmail.com through Monday, February 28.

Church Seeking Minister for Youth

FBC Forsyth is seeking a person with a sense of call and passion for ministry with youth to fill the position of part-time youth minister. Minimum qualifications include being a Christian with a maturing relationship with Christ, the ability to lead youth in Baptist doctrine, demonstration of leadership and organizational skills, genuine love and good rapport with young people, an ability to identify and foster leadership in youth and parents, and an attitude of flexibility to respond to changing needs and schedules. A post-secondary education and/or a degree in theology, Christian education, or youth ministry is preferred but not mandatory. Please send a letter of interest with a resume by mail to Youth Committee, FBC Forsyth, 95 West Morse Street, Forsyth, GA 31029, by fax to 478-994-6347, or by email to forsythfbc@gmail.com. A detailed job description is available at the church office or at www.fbcforsyth.com.
