Attend Screening of DVD on Baptists and Race

The Baptist Center for Ethics will host a lunchtime screening of its new DVD, Beneath the Skin: Baptists and Racism on November 13 at Smoke Rise Baptist Church in Stone Mountain. Cliff Vaughn will moderate the panel discussion and talk about ways to use the DVD in churches. According to Beneath the Skin, racism is far from eradicated either inside or outside of the church, but it shows how many Baptists are working together to break down dividing walls of race and ethnicity. If you would like to order this DVD or watch a clip, click here.

Positions Open

Garden Lakes Baptist Church in Rome is looking for a part-time interim minister to youth and college students. The church has an interim pastor, Dr. Dan Whitaker, and a part-time interim children's minister. It is looking for someone who can work twenty-five or more hours per week. Interested persons should contact Pam Peters at petecrew@bellsouth.net or Alan Mitchell at amitchell@cbfga.org.

FBC Claxton is prayerfully seeking a minister to lead and coordinate a well-rounded program with children and youth. This person should be enthusiastic with good communication skills and have appropriate experience with young people in a church setting. Housing is provided. Send resumes with references to fbc_youth@bellsouth.net or FBC, P. O. Box 607, Claxton, GA 30417.
