Taliaferro Summer Camps - Thank You!

Many thanks are expressed to the individuals and churches who led Taliaferro Summer Camps 2008. Thank you!!! Whether by serving for two hours or two entire weeks, almost eighty youth and adult camp leaders from sixteen churches led camp for 106 children and youth in grades K-12 on June 9-13 and 15-20. It was quite an amazing two weeks! Click here to view pictures from this year's camps.

Disaster Response - Thank You!

Many thanks are expressed to the individuals and churches providing much needed help to families affected by the May 11, 2008, Mother's Day Tornado in Central Georgia. Special thanks are extended to the members of New Heights Baptist Church, Macon, who served breakfast and lunch to responders on four consecutive "Serve on Saturday" (S.O.S.) Disaster Response opportunities. Click here to view pictures.

Long Term Disaster Response

All are welcome to organize a Disaster Response trip. The people of Macon and surrounding areas need help. Click here for more information about organizing a trip from near or far.

Hispanic Health Fair

Churches, individuals, and friends of CBF/GA are invited to help lead a Hispanic Health Fair on Saturday, August 2, 2008. Click here for more information or contact Scott Ford at sford@cbfga.org or 478-742-1191, ext. 28. Thank you!

Congregational Life

Attention Youth Ministers

CBF/SC, CBF/AL, and CBF/GA are excited to announce the first ever tri-state Youth Minister Retreat. This event will be a wonderful opportunity for youth ministers from these three states to network with one another. The retreat will focus on community building and providing resources for youth ministry. The theme this year is Balance in the Big Top. We will focus on how to balance the demands of life and ministry in the church.

ReCharge

A Youth Fall Retreat Experience

The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Georgia is pleased to be sponsoring ReCharge: A Youth Fall Retreat Experience. This new event developed out of a conversation among a few youth ministers who were looking for something to provide their youth in the fall. While this is the first event of this type sponsored by CBF/GA, we are hoping it will be an annual one. The theme for this year's retreat will be Sabbath Keeping. The students will experience a well-balanced schedule of worship, fellowship, and playtime.

When: October 17-19, 2008

Where: The Swamp in Union Point

Cost: $80.00

To learn more and register, visit www.rechargecbf.org. If you have questions, contact Nikki Hardeman.

Sunday School Training

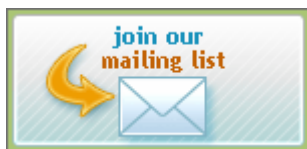

FBC Eatonton

August 9, 2008

Karen Massey, from the McAfee School of Theology, will be the keynote speaker. There will be training for adult, youth, and children Sunday School teachers. Anyone is welcome to attend. For more information or to register, please contact Tim Deborde at tdeborde@firstbaptisteatonton.org or 706-485-3331.

Church Seeking Minister

Augusta Heights Baptist Church of Greenville, SC, is seeking a staff minister to develop a ministry of outreach, Christian education, and faith development with children, youth, and their families. Candidates should have a suitable degree and a passion for reaching out to the community through family ministry. Additionally, they must be energetic, enthusiastic, and possess excellent communication skills. Send resume to Staff Search Committee, 3018 Augusta Street, Greenville, SC 29605 or ahbc@charter.net.

For more information, visit <http://www.augustaheights.org> or click here.

The Center for Congregational Health Seeks New President

Founded in 1992, the Center assists congregations and their leaders in becoming healthier communities of faith through Interim Ministry, Leadership Development for Clergy, Consulting Services, and Faith and Vocation resources. The Center is based in Winston-Salem, NC, and is a division of the School of Pastoral Care, North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc.

The ideal candidate will have demonstrated abilities to lead the not-for-profit organization collaboratively (1) to meet the ever-changing needs of its diverse clients, (2) to set strategic direction, (3) to design and implement new services as needs arise, (4) to strengthen and/or establish relationships with stakeholders, (5) to ensure sound financial management, including fundraising and providing services, and (6) to manage operations effectively. Experience in a ministry role and as a consultant is strongly preferred. Master's degree is required; earned doctorate and ordination preferred. Candidate should be Protestant and able to work within the Baptist theology and the organization of the Baptist Hospital system.

Qualified candidates should send resume and cover letter to mbengel@bellsouth.net.
