The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Georgia is pleased to be sponsoring ReCharge: A Youth Fall Retreat Experience. This new event developed out of a conversation among a few youth ministers who were looking for something to provide their youth in the fall. While this is the first event of this type sponsored by CBF/GA, we are hoping it will be an annual one. The theme for this year's retreat will be Sabbath Keeping. The students will experience a well-balanced schedule of worship, fellowship, and playtime.

When: October 17-19, 2008

Where: The Swamp in Union Point

Cost: $80.00

To learn more and register, visit www.rechargecbf.org. If you have questions, contact Nikki Hardeman.

A Book Review: The Four Things that Matter Most: A Book about Living, by Ira Byock

The four things that matter most are conversation elements between two people who are in a significant relationship. They can be expressed as four heart tasks: 1. Ask for forgiveness, 2. Give forgiveness, 3. Thank the other, and 4. Tell the other that we love him or her. To continue reading, click here.

New from Smyth and Helwys

Using the same voice read in the Formations commentary series, Cecil Sherman writes an autobiography focusing on his work as husband, father, pastor, and administrator. He shares the history of his ancestors to his work at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond. Dr. Sherman writes of his struggles through the days of his pastorates, the kindnesses of his churches, and his role in the 1980s SBC political controversy.

An inward look at a man known for his discernment and intellectual expeditions, By My Own Reckoning is a book to be studied and incorporated into the reader's own life. Click here for more information.
