Career Opportunity

- Evergreen Baptist Church in Milledgeville, Georgia, is searching for a part-time Music/Youth Leader. This person will be responsible for leading the music and youth ministries of the church. Applicants should be vocally and instrumentally talented and gifted in leading worship. Applicants should have a heart for ministering to youth. Evergreen Baptist is a contemporary church. Our music style is praise and worship. Our dress is casual. This new ministry position is an excellent opportunity for someone to develop a meaningful ministry in a new and growing church. For a detailed job description and application, please email Todd Lowe, pastor, or call 478-456-1772.

Summer Opportunity

- Kingdom Builders is partnering with CBFGA and TTWL to renovate houses in Taliaferro County. Below is a photo of one of the houses scheduled for work during the three-week summer project. Please email Jimmy Lewis for additional information. Youth groups can register to participate at Kingdom Builders. College students are also needed to serve in paid internships! Email Joey Fennell.

- CBF General Assembly to offer more than 80 workshops (CBF News Release)
At the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship's 2005 General Assembly in Grapevine, Texas, participants will be able to choose from among more than 80 workshops on topics ranging from spiritual formation to the missional church. Four sessions of about 20 workshops each are scheduled during the June 30-July 1 meeting. In many ways, the workshops will function as free professional development for church staff and congregational leaders. Thirty workshops will be taped and available for purchase following the Assembly.

Attention Chaplains and Pastoral Counselors:

Chaplains and pastoral counselors will also have opportunities for networking, education, celebration, and fellowship at the 2005 Cooperative Baptist Fellowship General Assembly. A luncheon for chaplains and pastoral counselors will be held Friday, July 1, from 11:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Wade Rowatt, director of Saint Matthews Pastoral Counseling Center in Louisville, Ky., will be the keynote speaker. The luncheon will also feature the presentation of a retirement certificate to Andrew Lester, professor of pastoral theology and pastoral counseling at Texas Christian University's Brite Divinity School. Participants should register for the General Assembly luncheon by June 20 by emailing Erin Raffield, Administrative Assistant for Chaplaincy and Pastoral Counseling, or call 770- 220-1645.

To pre-register for the Assembly or see a sample listing of workshops, visit CBF General Assembly 2005.

Reminders

- The Baptist History and Heritage Society's Annual Meeting June 2-4, 2005, at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama, will focus on "Women in Baptist History." An excellent program, featuring 27 speakers, has been planned. Dr. Sarah Frances Anders will present the keynote address titled "Baptist Women in America: 1950-2000." Other organizations meeting in conjunction with the BH&HS meeting include the Southern Baptist Library Association (June 1-2), the Fellowship of Baptist Historians (June 2), and a Baptist Women in Ministry Dinner (June 3).

Urgent: In order to guarantee that you receive room rates at discounted prices for these meetings, you must make your hotel reservation by April 30. Call either the Drury Inn at 205-940-9500 (160 State Farm Parkway just off I-65) or the Hampton Inn at 205-870-7822 (2731 US Highway 280).

If you need information about the BH&HS meeting, please email Pam Durso or call 1-800-966-2278.

If you have never attended a BH&HS meeting, this is one you will really enjoy. It will even feature a tour of the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute on June 3.
